Premier Salon-Linked Mobile Hair & Beauty Service

There are times when you just can't get to a salon. Perhaps because of an illness or disability, child-care commitments, lack of time or transport—or maybe you simply prefer to be visited in your own home.

Mobile hair and beauty technicians are valuable assets to any community and Kevin Reynolds has plenty of experience both as salon-owner in the West End of London and as a freelance hairdresser for private clients in London and more recently in Bedfordshire where he now lives.

Kevin loves both salon work and home visits for the variety it presents. And he is determined to enable those people who are unable or unwilling to visit salons for whatever reason to receive the same standard of professional treatment that you would expect in the salon itself.

For this reason, his new salon will have a dedicated "To Go" arm—a salon-linked mobile hair and beauty service.

We'd love to visit you in your own home and/or see you in the salon for a free consultation or an appointment.

Kevin Reynolds Hair & Beauty: the alchemy of transformation

Long ago, alchemists performed many experiments trying to turn lead into gold. In truth, they weren't fools, but extremely wise men who were searching for the meaning of life.

the alchemy of transformation

Alchemy is always about making something lesser into something greater.

Kevin Reynolds likes to apply this idea of alchemy to the human need for transformation—the desire to be seen to be as beautiful as we truly are.

Tribal cultures have jewellers and sculptors who can see the spirit, power or form within rocks waiting to be revealed. Any good hairdresser or beauty therapist will tell you that she or he can see the inherent beauty in a person, waiting to be 'unveiled'.

At Kevin Reynolds Hair & Beauty we understand the natural human longing to be transformed. We don't under-estimate it or believe it to be superficial. And we cherry-pick our staff to help facilitate this process of transformation for our clients. We pride ourselves on employing people who like people, who have the gift of not only seeing beauty but also the ability and the desire to assist in revealing it.

Give us a call. And allow us to demonstrate in your own home how we can help you reveal your unique beauty to the world.
